Rev Douglas Aitken has again asked for singers and readers from Dollar, Muckhart and Glendevon to participate in the recording for next year's World Day of Prayer service. The recording of the praise will take place in Muckhart Parish Church on Friday 27 October from 6pm. A number of readers will also be required and Douglas plans to have the readings recorded on the evening of Thursday 26 October, also in the Church at Muckhart. This will be the fourth time we have taken part in this project and it is a great privilege to be involved. After the recording sessions the content is made into CDs which are used around the world at the World Day of Prayer services in Churches where congregations are small and there may be no musical support. The emphasis is on enthusiasm - you don't need to be a great musician to take part so please consider coming along.

To register your interest, or for more information, please contact Marguerite Galloway - mgte@icloud.com - 01259 742346
